INTERESTING CARMEL

Interesting things about Carmel and Carmel People.

MUSIC SOCIETY BACKBONE OF CARMEL INDIVIDUALITY

Of all interesting Carmel institutions, and probably touching a greater number of people, the Carmel Music society heads the list.

"This year we have made more history than ever," said Miss Dene Denny of the Denny-Watrous gallery, president for three years, until Mrs. Dickinson was elected to that office. "We are introducing our first summer series; we have started educational work with our open quartet recitals and our open rehearsals of the orchestra under the direction of Michel Penha."

The society was organized in October 1927 at the Denny-Watrous gallery, with Mrs. Edward A. Kluegel, now deceased, as president. The first program was given by the Hart House String Quartet and was held in the Theatre of the Golden Bough. The house was packed to the capacity of its 300 seats, and after nearly six years of increasing interest, one program this year, the Vienna Choir boys packed the auditorium in the Sunset school with 900 listeners and turned many away who had neglected to buy seats in advance.

Success of the venture has been due to the continuous work of the people devoted to its interests, the high standards it has maintained and the generous support of the public. The smallest audience this year was more than a hundred larger than the largest audience of the first year.

Were it not for the Carmel Music society many of the peninsula people would never have the opportunity of hearing the best artists of the day. Florence Austral who is coming Saturday night for the final concert would be only a name to the majority but when the auditorium is packed with intent listeners, she will become a real person and her memory will be carried down through the years in the hearts of her audience.

All hail to the Carmel Music Society!

The copy containing the following names belonging on the list of people who have been in Carmel twenty years or more was mislaid last week. We are glad to add them, and sorry for the error.

PAST MATRONS AND PATRONS ARE HONORED

Several Carmel people attended the meeting of the Eastern Star in Monterey Monday night when the past matrons and patrons were the guests of honor. Among those from here were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Douglass, Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bonham and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bain. Mrs. Bain was chairman of the entertainment committee.

Honor guests were given lovely corsages and all made talks, responding to toasts. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Frank Garvin is one of Carmel's very clever wood carvers. The editor had the pleasure this week of looking at a number of letter openers which he made, and some of the patterns are most intricate, and the blades are as perfectly made as machine work. Mr. Garvin says that he has been whittling and carving since he was a small boy.

Mrs. Nettie E. Vergon of San Antonio and Twelfth enjoyed a visit from Friday until Sunday from her aunt, Mrs. Florence Langshaw and grandson, Zeal Langshaw of Michigan, the former's daughter, Mrs. Ethel Langshaw Liders, of Shafter, and Mrs. Clara Smith of Wickliffe, Ohio. Mrs. Langshaw and Mrs. Smith began a tour in October which took in Yellowstone Park, the Grand Canyon and Pike's Peak, among the many other interesting points. Though Mrs. Langshaw is 86 years of age she is enjoying every minute of the party.

City Council Will Consider Beer Licences at Next Meeting

It is understood that the question of amending the city ordinance No. 76 will be brought up before the city fathers at their next meeting.

The present ordinance provides that it shall be unlawful to manufacture, sell, transport or possess in the city of Carmel-by-the-Sea intoxicating liquors. The words, "intoxicating liquors" are defined as meaning any distilled malt, spirituous, vinous, fermented or alcoholic liquors containing more than one-third of one percent by volume. The amendment would change the content from one-third of one percent to agree with the new content set by congress, to become effective at 9 o'clock the night of April 6.

There is much controversy at present as to whether the majority of people in Carmel will favor the sale of beer in this city, there having been a tradition, and in most cases a clause in the deeds against it, and there will likely be a good many people out to hear the case presented.

There will be one more issue of Carmel Sun before the meeting of the council. If you wish to state your own views on the question of the sale of beer in Carmel, mail or bring your letter with your name signed, and it will be given space in "The Voice of the People."

PROGRAM FOR AUSTRAL AND AMADIO SATURDAY

The following program will be given by Miss Florence Austral at the final concert of the Carmel Music Society Saturday night.

Miss Austral is recognized as the greatest soprano of the day and the auditorium of the Sunset school will be crowded to capacity. 'Tis a rare opportunity peninsula folk are having.

FIRE PREVENTION BUREAU TO MEET AND MAKE PLANS

Members of the fire prevention bureau are busy these days planning just what to do for fire prevention week, which has been set for some time in April.

Carmel has always co-operated so loyally with the department that they have been able to accomplish much toward the decrease in fires, and will no doubt rally around this season.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND AT SUNSET FRIDAY

One can enjoy seeing Perry Dilley's puppet show and help with the fund for the relief of earthquake sufferers at the same time by attending the Dilley puppet show to be put on at Sunset school toworrow (Friday) morning, beginning at 10:55. The price of admission will be 15 cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

Dilley's puppets have been shown for eleven summers at the University of California and have been appreciated by more than 200,000 people.

Those who are wise will be on hand early in order to get the best seats.

NO AMUSEMENT TAX

The public is informed that there will be no amusement tax added to the admission prices for "Ladies of the Jury" to be presented three nights, beginning next Thursday. The prices are 50 cents to $1.25.

A DRAMATIZATION OF EUROPEAN HISTORY

All members of the Seventh Grade at Sunset School will participate in an original historical pageant to be held in the school auditorium at eleven o'clock on Wednesday, March 29. The public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

The various scenes of the pageant have been worked out by the class in connection with the study of European history. Simple costuming, stage and lighting effects are being planned by the students in the Seventh Grade art group. Almost all of the rehearsing on individual and group parts has been done outside of class time thus preventing interruption of the daily routine.

11:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 29.

FREDERIC PAXSON MADE FINE TALK SATURDAY

"No American is so ignorant that he does not know more than our president," said Frederic Paxson, in his address last Saturday before a large number of people at the Denny-Watrous gallery.

Mr. Paxson spoke of how the different nations regarded their rulers and contrasted with their attitude that of Americans toward our president. "Our president," he said, "is a little less than a king and a little more than a prime minister." Speaking ironically, as he did throughout his entire talk, the speaker said there were at least a dozen men in the Senate who are more important than the president. He brought out the fact that we "haze" our presidents, we start malicious gossip about them, generally about their private lives.

History of the past elections, Mr. Paxson pointed out, shows that the president is usually a man with little or no political experience and unseasoned to leadership, the fault lying in our primary system, where ambition among the leaders compell them all to compromise on an unknown.

Seldom in history has a president had complete cooperation from the House and Senate. Character and ability to take punishment, Mr. Paxson gave as the necessary assets for a president. He must do what is right and what looks right.

After the address, members of the audience were privileged to ask questions and many interesting facts and opinions were brought out.

Miss Mary Bulkley very cleverly introduced the speaker, bringing out the intriguing phrasing of the subject,, OUR president and THE Congress.

CARMEL SUN INSTALLING NEW CYLINDER PRESS

Due to the selpindde Pl sr
Due to the splendid patronage of the people of Carmel, it became necessary to install a new cylinder press in the office of Carmel Sun, the paper having been printed heretofore on the largest jobber made.

If all plans carry through with present arrangements, next week's paper will be printed on the new press and a copy of Carmel Sun will be placed in every home in this district, through the post office and through carriers. We want you to celebrate with us. We appreciate the encouragement you have given us and the splendid co-operation shown in reporting the happenings of this little city.

WHAT ABOUT IT?

Carmel Sun quotes from the opinion of a banker from a nearby town: "Chain stores are ruining our town. Our own merchants can not hold out much longer. Chains are a detriment all round. Their managers deposit the day's receipts each day and send a check East the following day."

Do we of Carmel want to see our independent merchants crowded out? Will it really profit us to save a few cents each month (IF we do) and destroy our town, county and state?

PENINSULA FOLK NOT TO SEE OLD IRONSIDES

On account of high seas, Old Ironsides, which is being towed on a tour of the coasts, was compelled to take refuge in Concepcion bay Tuesday, and peninsula people were keenly disappointed. Arrangements had been made in Carmel whereby practically every child was to be taken to view the famous old battleship which was to be towed in near the Monterey docks.

It is to be hoped that those who wish may go to San Francisco when the ship docks there, where it will stay for a twenty-two day visit.

The vessel was never defeated in her 42 battles and is now 135 years old. She has been rebuilt twice, once with money raised principally by school children who have been taught to love her by Oliver Wendell Holmes' famous old poem, 'Old Ironsides."

She will dock at Pier 36 in San Francisco and will be opened to the public without charge.

YOUNG PEOPLE DINE, DANCE AT TEA ROOM

The private dining room at the Russian tea room is becoming quite popular among the younger set of Carmel, as well as among those of maturer years. The fact that the Jadovskoys make no cover charge and provide a place for dancing along with a piano for the music makes a hit with the young crowd.

Tables are also provided for bridge, and for those who prefer the outdoors, there are tables on the balcony.

The Russian Tea Room is indeed one of Carmel's unique and interesting spots.

CARMEL SUN HAD FINE SERVICE FROM P. T. & T.

A great number of calls were necessitated this week from Carmel Sun to San Francisco anent the installation of the Sun's new cylinder press, and the editor was much pleased with the telephone service. Practically every call was put through with the speed of a local call.

In speaking of the promptness to Manager Sexton, the editor was informed that this is one of the new points of the service of which the company is quite proud. Ninety-two per cent of the calls are connected while the patron holds the receiver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mylar of Fresno arrived Wednesday evening to spend a few days at the home of Mr. Mylar's brother, Fred J. Mylar, and wife on Camino Real and Twelfth.

MANZANITA JUNIORS GIVE SECOND DANCE

Carmel dancers are looking forward this week to the second event in the series of dances to be put on by the Junior Association of the Manzanita club. Word has been received also of several parties of out-of-town folk who will attend.

The fact that Maurice Stoney's High Hatters will furnish the music, assures a good attendance. An effort is being made by the younger set to establish the club as a community center for entertainment and they are receiving a great deal of encouragement from the older crowd.

FAMILY HELPS PAUL STONEY CELEBRATE

Tuesday was Paul Stoney's birthday and in honor of the occasion, a party was given at his home on Santa Fe, with the following guests present: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stoney, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stoney, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stoney and Mrs. A. J. Stoney.

After the evening was spent in Bridge, delicious refreshments were served.

CLINIC IS HELD AT SUNSET SCHOOL TODAY

A clinic is being held at Sunset school this afternoon under the direction of Dr. Fortier, county health officer, and Miss Eunice Carey, the nurse.

On account of a small number of diptheria cases recently reported in Carmel, it was thought better to have the children innoculated against the disease. Many of the parents had their children immunized at the beginning of the epidemic and consequently the work of the physician this afternoon is quite light.

CARMEL MINISTERS EXCHANGE PULPITS

Probably for the first time in the history of Carmel Churches a pleasing interchange of ministers will take place on Sunday morning next at eleven o'clock. The Rev. Austin Chinn will conduct the service and preach the sermon in the Carmel Community Church, and the Rev. T. Harold Grimshaw will read Morning Prayer and preach a sermon in All Saint's Episcopal Church. This pleasing arrangement is a Mid Lenten feature.

Barry, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Flanders, continues very ill in the hospital in Monterey. Blood transfusions have been resorted to in an effort to combat his ailment which has been diagnosed as rheumatic fever.

The Red Cross Appeals For Earthquake Relief Fund

To relieve the distress of thousands of men, women and children camped in the parks of Southern California cities since the earthquake last Friday night, the American Red Cross appeals to the people of the Pacific Coast States to raise funds immediately.

Governor James Rolph, Jr., of California, by proclamation has designated the Red Cross as the official relief and rehabilitation agency and urges generous support of the Red Cross.

Many homes have been destroyed or seriously damaged. Owing to the lack of housing facilities, thousands of disaster sufferers have been sheltered in tents in Bixby and Recreation Parks, Long Beach. Other thousands in this and other communities have made use of space on lawns to set up tents in their effort to carry

John Barton Payne, Chairman of the American Red Cross, has announced an appropriation of $50,000 to the Disaster Relief Fund of $500,000 needed. At the same time all Red Cross Chapters have been asked to mobilize their forces and finances to help the stricken people of Southern California.

Thousands are without savings and facilities to help themselves. They have turned to the Red Cross for help. Money is needed for hospital bills, medical care, as well as for the rehabilitation program covering the repairing and rebuilding of homes.

Funds are needed to get the families out of the public parks and back into their homes. The Disaster Relief program of the Red Cross does not include rehabilitation of business property or business houses that were damaged or destroyed.

"Ladies of the Jury" This Week

The Big Trial Is Thursday, Friday, Saturday

By Marion Pinkham

Ten of the twelve persons who are cast as the jury in the Carmel Community Players March production, "Ladies of the Jury" are having their first introduction into court room procedure. An interested "by-sitter" at a recent rehearsal inquired, "How many of you have ever served on a real jury?" The answer was found to be "Two." Sam Etheridge, who plays Steve, was once summoned to help in deciding a liquor case. And Bert Bruno, cast as the chivalrous Tony, had served on a coroner's jury.

But by the time the show is ready, next week-end, the whole cast—attorneys, judge, witnesses and jurors, even the court officer—will be so thoroughly acquainted with the law that they could lend their services to any court. Frederick Burt, well-known actor and director, is coaching the actors in their legal conduct, assisted by Helen Ware, who is also playing the star role of Mrs. Crane.

All the thrills of a murder trial—hysterical defendant, angry lawyers, impatient judge, frightened witnessed and almost every type of juror that ever obeyed "summons" are here. But the excitement is not confined to the court room. The drama that is never revealed to the public—what goes on during the jurors' sessions—is shown through the medium of the playwright.

Animosities, budding love affairs, new friendships are nurtured in the long hours spent behind locked doors.

Nerves are frayed by the tedium of balloting, tempers are quickened by all sorts of prejudices. The civic duty of jury service is not an easy one to perform.

The high comedy of such a situation is competently handled by the playright, Fred Ballard, and interpreted by a splendid cast. March 30, March 31 and April 1st are the nights of production for which tickets will be on sale at Staniford's drug store. Prices will be 50 cents and $1.25.

LETTER TELLS BROTHER EXPERIENCE IN QUAKE

Frank Wild of Carmel received a letter from his sister-in-law in Long Beach telling of her experience in the recent quake which devastated that city. She said in part:

"It certainly was a terrible experience. We had just sat down to dinner when all at once that terrific rumble came. I ran for the kitchen. Ray, Helen and Mac (her husband, daughter and son-in-law) were thrown to the floor twice before they managed to get out of the breakfast room. By that time it was going good and people were running everywhere. Our chimneys were falling and that was what wrecked our house so badly."

CARMEL AMATEUR STATION CONTACTS MOZAMBIQUE

A new place on the map is now in direct contact with carmel—Mozambique, in Portuguese East Aprica, across the Mozambique channel from the island of Madagascar. One morning this week Luis Rodriguez, Amateur Station CR7AD, got into direct two-way communication with Station W6HM here in our own village.

The distance in this case is remarkable. Radio signals, even the short waves of 40 meters are seldom heard thru full daylight over 3000 miles; but they will travel comfortably thru all the darkness there is, and at times thru some daylight besides, as they must in this case. These communications with Mozambique are made while the darkness is lying over the Pacific and Indian oceans. That is, at our 7 a. m., when the darkness has passed to the westward of us. The signals, therefore, traveled across those two oceans to be heard. In that direction the distance between Carmel and Mozambique is 14,450 miles. And that is over 2000 miles more than half way around the world.

Professor Yasha Bunyan, who is doing research work in the Hoover War Library at U of C on Russian revolutions, spent the week-end with Carmel friends. Professor Bunyan is well known in Carmel, having spent several vacation periods here.

Local and Personal

Mrs. J. L. Pierce of San Jose has come to Carmel to spend a month.

Miss Louise Fleming of San Jose spent the week-end in her cottage, Sunset.

Miss Mabel Kimble of San Jose spent the week-end at her cottage on San Carlos.

Mrs. H. C. Benedict of Berkeley, came to Carmel Monday to her home on Scenic drive.

Miss Patricia Glasscock left Sunday to spend the week in San Mateo with relatives.

Miss Blanche Fullegar of San Jose was among the many week-end visitors to Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rolley of Oakland have taken a cottage on Monte Verde for a month.

Miss Leonore Thompson and Miss Mildred Weiland of San Francisco are in Make Believe cottage this week.

Mrs. Selleby and family of Palo Alto came down the last of the week for a short stay in the Wilson cottage.

Captain and Mrs.Hodgins returned to their home in San Francisco after spending a week at Sunset cottage.

Several Carmel business men reported that Saturday's business was like old times, and almost back to normal.

Misses Marie Muscott and Helen McCarty of Oakland were guests of Miss Margaret Swedberg at Kenwood studio over the week end.

Miss Doris Martens of San Francisco, and a party of friends have been in the Wilson main house this week, enjoying lovely Carmel.

Mrs. Warren is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. S. W. Lawrence, of Oakland. Mrs. Lawrence will remain here for several days.

Mrs. Victor Grant and daughter of San Mateo have come to Carmel to spend the next two months and are located in the Mendell cottage.

Wade H. Etter and wife are new residents to Carmel, having come here from Stockton. They have taken the Osterman cottage on Dolores.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bonham, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg, attended the Sciot dinner and card party in Salinas Tuesday night.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Margaret Chamberlain were her niece, Miss Anne Harbaugh, of Palo Alto and her brother, Dr. Ross Harbaugh, and family of San Francisco.

Miss Evelyn Arne and Lynn Frisbee of San Francisco spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Arne. They enjoyed the daySunday with friends on a picnic down the coast.

The peninsula is becoming a georgeous sight with the advent of the golden poppies and other California wild flowers, as well as the cultivated flowers growing in profusion in the well-kept gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Leidig drove down to Menlo Park to see their son, Ted, and John Campbell in Menlo college, play with their team against San Mateo. They report the Menlo boys were victorious and delighted.

Professor Yasha Bunyan, who is doing research work in the Hoover War Library at U of C on Russian revolutions, spent the week-end with Carmel friends. Professor Bunyan is well known in Carmel, having spent several vacation periods here.

Martin Leidig, who attends school at Corvallis Oregon, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Leidig, for the spring vacation. He has as his guest a fellow student. The boys drove a car for a friend as far as Menlo Park and Mr. Leidig went to Menlo for them Monday morning.

Mayor Catlin this week received a letter from Mrs. Flora Grant Hamilton in Culver, Ind., asking for information about Carmel. Mrs. Hamilton was here a good many years ago and was so much pleased with the place, she has never been able to forget it. She thinks she will probably come here to make her home.

Miss Marian Adams placed in the window of her shop on Ocean avenue a few days ago some art work by her sister who is a teacher of art in a Los Angeles school. One might wonder at first, but on close look, they are horses, plain as can be, flowing mane and all. They are made of bright tin and are really quite clever. Miss Adams placed them where they could enjoy the fragrance of a beautiful bowl of spring flowers.

W. . Staniford was in Hermosa Beach the first of the week visiting at the home of his daughter.

Peter Mawdsley and family are spending a ten-day vacation in the hills south of Carmel.

Mrs. Nellie A. LaRheir and daughter motored to San Jose Sunday to visit a few days with Miss Hilda LaRheir.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Coote are away on a trip which will take them to Salt Lake and San Francisco. They expect to return to Carmel about April 1st.

A number of Carmel members of the Monterey Lodge of B. P. O. E. will go to Salinas next Saturday evening to attend a district meeting of the organization.

WEEK-END GUESTS AT HOTEL LA RIBERA

Mr. and Mrs. S. Green, Larkspur; Mr. D. Sanford, San Francisco; Mrs. William Austin and children, Palo Alto; Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Fraser, Seattle, Wash; Mrs. L. H. Phillips, Santa Cruz; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Price, San Francisco; Mr. Sam Braun, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Heck, Hermosa Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lilienthal, San Francisco; Mr. H. P. Morrissey, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Dobrin of San Francisco recently spent several days of their honeymoon in Carmel stopping at Hotel La Ribera.

POINTED QUERIES

(Taken from the San Francisco News March 18)

Editor: The senator from my district, Mr. Edward H. Tickle, gives the following reason for voting against consideration of the tax equalization bill:

"Los Angeles, San Francisco and Alameda counties are served by Municipally-owned, tax-exempt utilities. Therefore, to equalize taxes, these utilities should also be taxed. It would be more advantageous to pass a law against an increase in rates."

To what extent is California served by municipally-owned utilities?

Are the rates of these utilities low enough to justify tax exemption, or do they reduce city taxes to any extent?

The fact remains that California needs those $6,000,000.00 and it seems to me that the senator's excuse is a poor one.

Why guarantee the utilities 7 per cent on an inflated investment and let them pay executives $25,000 a year and more?

SPORTS NEWS of the WEEK

Abalone League

The final brawl of the day was a so-called game of baseball which would have made Ringling's circus look like a maidens prayer. Of all the wild and wooly affairs that have taken place in the annals of history of the Abalone League this was one of the worst ever to take place. I will say in fairness to the Manzanita Club they at least tried to make it look like a ball game. The final score read when this hectic fight was over, Manzanita 19, Peninsula Club 14. Gordy Campbell and Dick Catlett played Stellar baseball both at field and bat. Ivan Kelsey pitched steady ball and his team gave him fair support, which was something the Peninsula didn't, after trying out several pitchers. When they were not hit all over the lot the rest were wild and walked most of the batters, of course this does not win ball games. Jean Leidig played a nice game at first and hit well and so did Francis Brewer the other girl on the Manzanita Club. The feature of the game was Dick Catlett's home run over left field fence, one of the longest hits on this field. The Peninsula Club was badly handicapped by the absence of their star pitcher, Charlie Berkey, which no doubt hurt his team as Charlie is one of the best pitchers in the Abalone League.

Carmel Woods

The Giants won their fourth straight game from the Tigers in a hard fought close contest, the final score was Giants 10 Tigers 8. The game was close all the way and the out come was in doubt clear to the end. While the Giants won they paid dearly for the result Helen Heavy, their star 1st baseman received a broken finger going after a wild throw and will be out of the game for the season. The Giants will have a hard time to replace her and it will no doubt hurt their chances of winning the championship. Helen is a corking good playerand a darn nice girl and everybody will be sorry for her unfortunate mishap. The Del Monte and Polo Club was postponed on account of the Polo Club being unable to have their team on the field due to unavoidable absence. Del Monte refused to accept forfeit of the game and it was a mighty fine piece of sportsmanship on their part and they should be congratulated. This is the true spirit of the Abalone League.

The Point

The Pilots beat the Shamrocks in a sluging contest. When the final smoke of battle cleared the Pilots were on the long end of the score, to the tune of 14 to 7. Alderson started in the pitcher's box for the Shamrocks and was O. K. until the second inning began when the fire works started. The Pilots clouted six runs across the pan and the Pilots were never headed after that. The Shamrocks made their final bid for the game in the sixth frame and added five more runs but the Pilots' lead was too much to overcome. The game wasn't particularly exciting because the Pilots are a tough team and once in the lead they are hard to catch. Ed Files led his team in batting, getting five hits out of five times up, including a home run. Staniford, Hicks, Parker, and Bancroft also hit a home run, and led in bombarding the Shamrock pitchers with a deluge of base hits. Art Hilbert hit a home run for the Shamrocks and Ban Handley did his share to keep his team in the running.

Abalone League Batting Averages

By Elizabeth Reamer

Abalone League batting averages, including games of last Sunday, show Bill Staniford, Pilot left-fielder, leading the Community Section with a percentage of .833 in five games and Del Slipner, Polo Club fly-chaser, heading the Club Section list with .846 in three games. Spike Tremayne, Giant catcher, is runner-up with .778 in the Community roll, and Rob Roberts, another Polo Club player, takes second place in the Club division.

Helen Van Riper, Pilot first baseman, tops the feminine contingent in the Community Section, with an even .500 percentage. Mary Henderson, Polo Club first sacker, is hitting for .571. Averages for all players are based on the record of "Reached Base". This heading includes bases on balls, base on errors, and fielder's choice in addition to the solid blows scored as hits.

"RED DUST"
High Powered Drama

CLARK GABLE

Place two such magnetic personalities as Clark Gable and Jean Harlow together on the screen. Give them the sensuous and exciting background of Cochin, China. Surround them with such competent supporting players as Gene Raymond, Mary Astor, Donald Crisp and Tully Marshall then the astute, finished direction of Victor Fleming. You are bound to have a smash screen hit. And that is just what you see in "RED DUST" which opens at the Carmel Theatre Sunday and Monday, Mar. 26 and 27.

Here is an offering which has every element to entertain all types of film goers. Love interest vivid action, colorful atmosphere and effective character portrayals are all combined in this fast moving story of life on a rubber plantation in Indo-China.

Gable has never been seen to better advantage than as the gruff plantation overseer who has been hardened and brutalized by his victory over the tropics. Not since his famous role as "Killer Mears" in the stage version of the "The Last Mile" has he had a part of such virile strength and dramatic power.

Likewise, Miss Harlow comes through with the most convincing portrayal she has yet attempted. As the loose moraled Vantine, born to the tropics, she shows a range of emotional ability which surpassed even her recent triumph in "Red Headed Woman".

CARMEL MINISTERS EXCHANGE PULPITS

Probably for the first time in the history of Carmel Churches a pleasing interchange of ministers will take place on Sunday morning next at eleven o'clock. The Rev. Austin Chinn will conduct the service and preach the sermon in the Carmel Community Church, and the Rev. T. Harold Grimshaw will read Morning Prayer and preach a sermon in All Saint's Episcopal Church. This pleasing arrangement is a Mid Lenten feature.

BADMINTON MATCHES PLAYED TUESDAY

Exhibition Badminton matches were played Tuesday on the courts in the Monterey High School gymnasium that are to be the scene of state championship matches Easter week-end, April 15 and 16. Four hundred students furnished the gallery for the speedy net game that is rapidly coming to recognition.

The matches were staged by players from Old Monterey Polo Club which is responsible for bringing the first state championship to Monterey. In a set of women's doubles Mary Callender and Dorothy Frost defeated Marguerite Moll and Lee Tevis. Rob Roberts and Paul Whitman faced Walter Snook and C. L. Conlon in the men's doubles.

After the matches students took their places across the nets from the club racqueteers and tried out the game. Among the school participants were Haywood Cook, Sari Szody, Rose Cardinale, Charles Spivelli, and Martha Frisbie.

YOUR QUESTION OF OLD RAZOR BLADES SOLVED

What to do with your old razor blades had almost become a national problem until it was discovered they aided in the growth of rose bushes when buried at the roots. Still that great discovery didn't relieve those who had no rose gardens and it remained for the bathroom-cabinet makers to solve the mystery.

At the A.D.H. company offices there are on display two cabinets which have slots in the backs down which a frenzied shaver may cast the worn-out blades.

We forgot to find out what happened when the space between the walls is filled. The cabinets set into the wall and from the front appear to be simply a mirror hung on the wall.

NO TAKERS FOR COIN AT TEN PER CENT OFF

A man trying to sell a twenty-dollar gold piece at a discount and not being able to get away with it—such are times. Monday G. C. Romine stood in front of his store and offered a twenty-dollar gold piece for $18, and no takers. One man almost fell for the bargain, but Mr. Romine looked so pleased that the buyer bounced the coin on the walk, handed it back, and walked on. And the joke was it was real coin of the realm.

The VOICE of the People

MRS. RENDTORFF STATES VIEWS OF CAMPAIGN

Carmel, March 21, 1933

Editor of the Carmel Sun:

I have explained my position to Mr. Newberry's proposal for a compromise candidate both in the Peninsula Herald and in the Pine Cone. With your permission I should like to use your paper as a medium for expressing some of my views with regard to the school campaign.

All through the present campaign I have purposely refrained from making statements that might be construed into a program or into promises of what I would do in case I should be elected. I felt it would not be honest to formulate beliefs or promise definite actions. And let me state here that I do not think that information gained by visiting the school or interviewing the teachers or visiting the board meetings is sufficiently sound to warrant judgment. Judgment that justifies action on the part of a school trustee must be based on very thorough investigation.

Such an investigation by a trustee should in my opinion, be approached in a spirit of open-mindedness, a willingness to respect sincere ideals, a warm appreciation for honest efforts and achievements, and the courage to carry out such readjustments as may be necessary.

I have been quoted as having declared myself in favor of certain radical changes and of sponsoring certain policies; I have even been accused of intending to cripple the school and deprive the children of the generous opportunities they have had in various lines of instruction. Of course, all such statements are incorrect. The only motive I had in entering the educational field is the interest I have in the children and a healthy development of the school.

As my supporters have not required any statement of creed from me, as they have declared themselves willing to trust my judgment I feel that, if elected, I could enter on my duties ready to serve the children and the community unhampered by any restrictions except my own conscience and judgment.

EMMA E. RENDTORFF

March 20th 1933

E. F. Bunch,
Editor Carmel Sun.

If I am not imposing too much on your good nature, will you grant me a little space in your paper that I may answer Mr. Newberry's article in last week's Pine Cone relative to the campaign for School Trustee.

The group of people with whom Mr. Newberry claims he conferred, is unquestionably a representative one and I have no doubt honestly considered fair and reasonable, his proposition that both candidates withdraw in favor of the third. But by what authority does Mr. Newberry and his group make this proposition? Do ALL Mr. Ewig's supporters agree to throw him overboard in favor of another candidate to be chosen by a small committee of six? And what of the rest of the community? Has it no voice in the matter? Is it not rather presumptuous for a relatively small group of our citizens, (no matter how sincere or well intentioned), to attempt to dictate who shall be the candidate for so important an elective office as School Trustee?

Mrs. Rendtorff, at the request of many friends, consented to become a candidate. With her background and experience she is peculiarly well qualified to be a School Trustee and Sunset School District should be glad to secure her services. I feel entirely safe in saying that not one of her supporters would be willing to have her withdraw. We prefer to trust to the judgment of the voters at the polls, where the decision rightfully should be given, rather than to accept the decision of a small group, arrived at in some one's private residence.

In the meantime, I would suggest that much strife and hard feeling could be avoided if Mr. Newberry would cease his groundless accusations and attacks on the motives of those who do not agree with him.

Yours very truly,
Geo. L. Wood

QUICK PAYMENT ON BOXES INDICATE GOOD TIMES

Extraordinarily quick return from notices of box rent due at the postoffice indicate a return to better times. According to Postmaster W. L. Overstreet, the first day witnessed payment of more than one-seventh of the amount due on the entire number, the best return since the beginning of the depression.

Friday, March 31st will be the last day for paying and from that date those who do not pay will get their mail at general delivery.

Since the great majority of the boxes rent at 60 cents a quarter, it is hardly likely that many will forfeit their boxes.

REPORTER VISITS LAUNDRY LEARNS SOMETHING NEW

A mangle that will iron anything from a handkerchief to a 9x12 rag rug was one of the interesting things the Sun folk saw this week when they were shown through the Carmel laundry by the proprietor, W. L. Mack.

Towels have to go through but once, as they pass between two hot steam rolls, but pillow cases have to be put through twice in order to dry the hems thoroughly.

The old danger of operators getting their hands caught between the rollers has been eliminated the first roll being so constructed that it stops when slightly obstructed.

There were other interesting sights too, for instance, the huge whirling machines where the clothes are put through seven waters, then tossed into others where the water is thrown out by centrifugal force.

MRS. MAX ROSENBERG HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Max Rosenberg of San Francisco was hostess at a luncheon Tuesday at her home on Mountain View avenue, her guest of honor being her sister, Miss Faye Pollack. Her guests were the Misses Pollack, Tess White of Salinas and Doris Rosenberg of San Francisco, and Mesdames Maxwell Robitaille, Lester Goodfriend of Salinas, A. W. Shiverts and M. Winters of San Francisco and Mrs. R. E. Bonham of Carmel. The afternoon was spent in playing Bridge. Pictures were taken of the group for souvenirs.

CARMEL-HIGHLANDS FIRE DEPARTMENTS

Forty-six members of Carmel and Highlands fire departments and several guests from the Pacific Grove department, including Chief Gilmer, met here last Thursday night and spent a most profitable and interesting hour, followed by a delicious feed, which the men themselves furnished.

Salvage and rescue demonstrations were made by the Carmel lads, and the Highlands followed with a ladder drill under their chief, Mr. Fisher. Carmel then put on a hose-laying and water drill. Chief Fisher, having taken a six-weeks course in the San Francisco Fire college, is very proficient in his work and brought many bits of useful information to his fellow workers.

At the banquet, R. G. Leidig, Carmel chief, was toastmaster, and called on all the officers for short talks.

So enjoyable was the meeting, they plan to get together again soon.

RUSSIANS FLAVOR TEA WITH THIN SLICES APPLE

The Sun family were guests at luncheon Wednesday of Colonel and Mrs. Jadovskoy at the Russian Tea Room. We don't ordinarily believe in telling what we had to eat but this was out of the ordinary. We first enjoyed a bowl of delicious bortsch, a Russian soup made of vegetables and colored a beautiful red by the addition of beets. With this we had the dark bread and butter sandwiches. We then had lettuce with Russian dressing, followed by a dessert of fruits, and then came the tea with strawberry jam. Russian peasants in their happier days raised their own fruits and dried them for the winter's use. "Tea," the colonel said, "is consumed in such great quantities by the Russians they have to try to figure out different ways of serving it to break the monotony." He said one of their favorite ways was to drop very thin slices of apple into the steaming hot tea and that by the time the tea was drunk the apples had cooked so that they were delicious eating, and had served to give bouquet to the tea as well as for a fruit.

ELLEN PEARL McGRURY RECOVERING FROM INJURY

Mrs. J. B. McGrury returned home Saturday from Santa Cruz, bringing her little daughter who recently broke her arm while playing at school there. Ellen Pearl is doing nicely but her mother has to take her to and from Santa Cruz frequently to have X-Rays made so that no complications may set in. The youngster is quite ingenuous for one of her tender years and has a mind she uses for thinking. Since she is not allowed to play with other children, she spends a great deal of time cutting out dolls. And how do you suppose she does it? She holds a clothes pin between her two fingers, held out straight by the splints, and she grasps the paper with the clothes pin.

ZONING MAP FILED TO PROTECT DISTRICT

An interesting note is found this week among the real estate transfers from the Daily Abstract.

"Zoning map No. 3 filed: Zones areas adjoining county road from Monterey city limits to Carmel city limits and from Carmel city limits to Carmel river."

And so endeth the fight made to keep the scenic beauty of this district free from camp grounds and such.

A. C. Grimshaw is very much pleased these days with his sale of Firestone tires and expects to be away up in the list when the next report of the contest is made. His friends are entering into the game and buying for the future, even if their tires are not entirely worn out now.
